

From Impex we want to inform you that to guarantee the health of both our employees and our customers, from Monday 23 March 2020, we will remain CLOSED due to the current situation caused by the COVID-19 outbreak until further notice.

Even if our warehouses remain closed, we want to inform you that our contact phones and emails will be active at all times at your disposal for any question or urgency.

We want to thank the work that is being done to stop COVID-19 and from Impex we will put our grain staying at home to prevent the spread. We urge great caution and hope that this troubling situation, together, will end as soon as possible.

We leave you all the information below:
